President and CEO of American Financial Services of Hawaii, Inc., parent company of American Trust Co. Hawaii Inc. and Bishop Trust company, Limited. I was known as the “father of profit sharing in Hawaii,” helping over 1,000 local businesses to put in a qualified profit sharing plan.

I serve as president and director of the Atherton Family Foundation. I helped to found the Hawaii Community Foundation in 1987 and served as the original secretary and as a director.

I completed a six-year term as a board member of the National Council on Foundations. In 1995 the Hawaii Chapter of the National Society of fund Raising Executives named me “Philanthropist of the Year.”

I was the founding president of the Good Beginnings Alliance, a statewide organization set up by the Hawaii State Legislature to coordinate state, county and private programs to help parents and children from birth to age 5.

As chairman of the Hawaii Theatre Center I have helped raise over $33 million to bring people back to downtown Honolulu after dark.

In 1959 I was appointed chairman of the committee to select the architects for the proposed Hawaii State Capitol and co-chair of the committee to build it.

In 1942 I was elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Yale University. I completed the Harvard Graduate School of Business Advanced Management Program in 1962, and was granted the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters by the University of Hawaii in 2002.
